

Integrating Marital Therapy Within a Developmental Model of Recovery

May 24, 2019 • 9AM - 11:30AM
8:00AM - 8:45AM: Breakfast/Networking/Registration

FAIRBANKS HOPE ACADEMY - AUDITORIUM
8102 CLEARVISTA PARKWAY • INDIANAPOLIS, IN 46256

During this workshop, participants will evaluate the impact of Post Acute Withdrawal Syndrome (P.A.W.S) on marital functioning, identify the developmental stages of recovery and the requisite skills to progress through each, analyze how to avoid common mistakes made by marital and addictions therapists alike when assisting couples where alcoholism and other addictions are present. They will also determine realistic and timely marital therapy strategies throughout the recovery process.

PRESENTER

STEWART BALL, LCSW, LMFT, LCAC

Stewart Ball completed his undergraduate studies at Anderson University; majoring in Psychology, Religious Studies, and Sociology. He completed his graduate studies at Butler University, specifically in Marriage and Family Therapy. En route to attaining Clinical Membership status with the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy, he engaged in extensive post graduate supervision. Stewart is licensed as a Clinical Social Worker (LCSW), Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT), Clinical Addictions Counselor (LCAC) and retains addictions credentials on a national level as well (MAC). He is a Clinical member of the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), the National Association of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC), the Indiana Association for Addiction Professionals (IAAP), and charter member of the American Association of Christian Counselors (AACC). Among his achievements is the establishment of the first NAADAC endorsed, fully online, undergraduate addictions counseling program. Stewart served as the founding president of the Indiana Association for Addictions Professionals and played an integral role in the licensure of addictions counselors in Indiana. In addition, Stewart is a frequent speaker for a variety of religious and secular conferences on a regional, state and national level. His other projects include the release of the Vision CD, involving topics such as recovery and relationships.

CONTACT

AMY SMITH
812.431.4537 • AMYSMITH@SUMMITBHC.COM

REGISTER

SUMMITBHC.COM/EVENTS/

COST TO ATTEND

$10 | 2 CEs

SPECIAL THANKS TO
FAIRBANKS HOPE ACADEMY
FOR HOSTING THIS EVENT
WITH SUMMIT BHC

